

You are invited to participate in the Annual Meet the Candidates Forum, sponsored by The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Central Long Island Branch; the National Coalition of 100 Black Women (NCBW), Suffolk County Chapter, Inc; and The Links, Incorporated, Eastern Shore (NY) Chapter.

This Forum will be held in person on:

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 11TH, 2023 | 7PM – 9PM
HELEN BUTLER HALL AT THE DOMINICAN VILLAGE
565 ALBANY AVE AMITYVILLE NY

Although this is not a presidential or midterm election year, there are still many major issues confronting our nation and local communities. This event will give you the opportunity to ask questions of those who are asking for your vote. If you want to know the candidates' positions on issues such as social justice, criminal justice and policing, education, health care, or anything else, now is the time to ask them.

We eagerly anticipate your presence and participation, and we encourage you to tell your neighbors to participate, as well.

For additional information, please contact:

Madeline Quintyne-McConney

National Coalition of 100 Black Women (NCBW)
 Suffolk County Chapter
 631-620-8489

Sandra Thomas

The Links Incorporated
 Eastern Shore (NY) Chapter
 631-523-3158

A'Dream Matthews

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)
 Central Long Island Branch
 631-745-6156

A night for candidates and constituents

An opportunity to hear the candidates for various public offices, to ask questions and to express your concerns

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)
 Central Long Island Branch

Rev. Saba Mchunguzi
 President

National Coalition of 100 Black Women (NCBW) Suffolk County Chapter Inc.

Madeline Quintyne-McConney,
 MSW
 President

The Links, Incorporated
 Eastern Shore (NY) Chapter

Hon. Ayesha K. Brantley, JFC
 President